I Remembered

In the two years that I've been involved in yearbook, I've learned one very important thing — it's not as easy as it looks.

As an editor, I've had to worry about pictures being taken, copy being typed, and whether we had enough yearbooks for those who bought them!

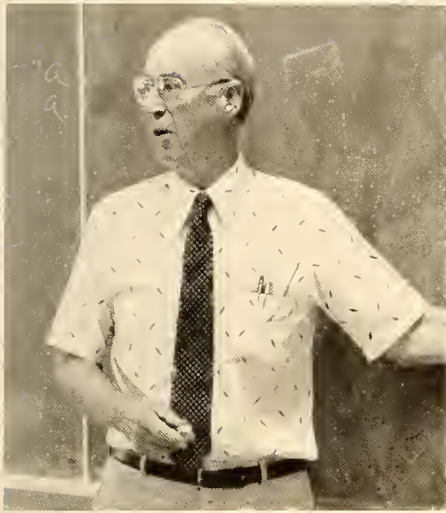

I could never understand why any adult who didn't need an activity to get into college would put herself through this kind of torture.

Mrs. Diane Jeserski, willingly put her time into the Minnechaug yearbook for a number of years. In fact, when the 1985 staff had no advisor, she graciously accepted the position even with the responsibilities of a two-year old at home. The 1985 Falcon was plagued with problems, but Mrs. Jeserski still kept the book together even in the face of her own personal tragedies that year.

The time and effort Mrs. Jeserski put into the Falcon over the years can not be forgotten. The 1986 staff has decided to dedicate our book to Mrs. Jeserski for all that she has given to the yearbook over the years. Thank you Mrs. Jeserski — and we'll always remember.

Karolyn Belcher

To Remember

Mr. George Robinson began teaching at Minnechaug during its first year of operation in 1958. Through 1985, he helped several generations of Minnechaug students through every level of mathematics. He also served as the Mathematics Department Chairman and will always be considered an important and valuable part of Minnechaug.

Mrs. Katherine Goulding taught her students the importance of cooking for over two decades here at Minnechaug. She was Home Economics Department Chairman for many years, and will be remembered for imparting the knowledge of creating gastronomical delights to her students.

Mr. Warren Amerman was a chorus instructor at Minnechaug for twelve years, serving many of those years as Department Chairman. Perhaps that for which he will be most remembered is his production of Gilbert and Sullivan which served not only Minnechaug but the Wilbraham community. We shall miss his talent, warmth and leadership.

For fifteen years, Mr. William McLean taught Social Studies here at Minnechaug, and coached the golf team for much of that time. Both his students and players will always remember him for his exceptional ability to motivate.

Mrs. Valenta Robinson was a Spanish teacher at Minnechaug for twenty-two years and was very involved in the Foreign Language Club which she helped mold. She will be greatly missed by her former Spanish students.

CLASS OF 1986

Dear Mrs. King,

Hi! Well, it's June now and this will be my last note to you as class secretary. It's hard to believe that four years of Minnechaug has already flown by. Why, just yesterday it was freshman year and John was president (of course), Jenn Buchholz vice president, Hillary Broderick class secretary, and Dave Hartin, treasurer. Everyone was running around trying to find us an advisor and you came to our aid. Sophomore year rolled around with Kim Maloney as vice-president, and Noël Rihm as secretary. This was the year of chocolate bunnies and Minnechaug caps. And class rings.

And of course I remember Junior year! Mark Macero was elected vice-president and I was elected secretary. As did everyone else, I welcomed the idea of planning activities and fundraisers — and worry about money!! (Ha ha!)

It truly has been hard work — but it was all worth while. We even managed to have some fun. I remember sewing pennant after pennant just to go out and stand in the cold to sell them. (fun?) Our many thanks to Mr. Matroni and his Graphic arts classes for printing the pennants. We truly appreciated it! And remember all the M & M's Tony gave us for helping with the Magazine Drive? And all the Sugar Daddies you hid?

And I remember missing lunch to hand out prizes and fill out the posters — and getting robbed!! Whatever happened to Glen putting a pie in John's face if we beat his class at the Magazine Drive?

I remember John, Joel, and I trying to find the place to buy soda for our MORP Video Dance. Once we got there, we kept switching the order. We kept carrying cases back and forth to John's car. We went all over the place looking for brick wall-paper and stole Burger King crowns! And remember Mike Chambers and Kim Walker were elected as MORP King and queen? And how could I forget our booth at the Town Fair. We stood there in the rain for hours and let people throw wet, dirty, sponges at our faces. Poor John — he really got nailed! (Fun?!) And don't forget those soggy jelly beans. And Senior year. I'll never forget senior year. Kim was vice president again and Craig Corrigan became treasurer. We finally organized our committees. I remember our last minute planning of the senior Kick-off — and we still had an awesome time. Remember we all signed that poster? Jim Metzger thanks you for your artistic services throughout our four years. And I remember planning all our senior activities — a hayride, a class trip, sledding, senior pranks (shh!) picking the band for the Prom, caps and gowns, graduation, announcements, senior banquet and breakfast. Wow! Were we busy!

But we could never have done it without you. You were not only our advisor, but also our friend. We enjoyed your company and thank you, as a class, from the bottom of our hearts. You'll never know how much you've been appreciated. Mrs. King — we'll always remember you.

Love always,
Sarah (Class Secretary, '86)

UNDERCLASSMEN

We Remember

Advisor : Dr. Joyce Sager

Entering Minnechaug Regional High School in early September, we remember the nervous anticipation of being freshmen, of getting lost, and of being scared of the upperclassmen. As the months progressed, our class became familiar and comfortable with our new school. What we remember most from our first months at school is the new friends we made from Wilbraham and Hampden.

We were first recognized when, as a class we won the JCL's 9th annual Battle of the Classes Dance. We raised $41.25 because 165 loyal members of our class attended.

On November 6 we had our class elections after two long weeks of campaigning with posters, T-shirts, and even personalized pencils!

Under the excellent supervision of our class advisor Dr. Joyce Sager, we started to become a real part of Minnechaug. As in the past, we sponsored a dance in June for the incoming freshmen. The dance proved highly successful.

As we look back on our first year, we remember how united, enthusiastic, and successful our class was. We eagerly look forward to three more years of great achievements as the class of '89.

As I look back on my sophomore year, many memories race through my mind. Starting off the year with Project Adventure was a real treat (ha!). I can remember climbing up the Pamper Pole and not being able to grasp the trapeze. The rest of the students in the class encouraged me as they swung along with amazing grace (just my luck — half the class seemed to be from the gymnastics team). In doing this we learned to trust each other and how to survive when swinging over the Grand Canyon carrying nitroglycerine in hand — a talent I'm sure will come in handy come college-application time.

Also this year, Balfour Ring Company gave us a super-great selection from which to choose our class rings and, as usual, the selling of these classy Minnechaug memoirs was a huge success. Our four class officers even designed the unique side of our ring. Mr. Kibbe chose Balfour's for their elegantly designed rings and fair prices, and he was repaid with an unexpected gift — free Boston Bruins' tickets! I'm sure — knowing Mr. K's famous love for the Bruins — this made his day, if not his year.

This year we also decided to change the traditional (i.e.-boring) candy sale to the first annual Class of '88 towel sale. The results were excellent.

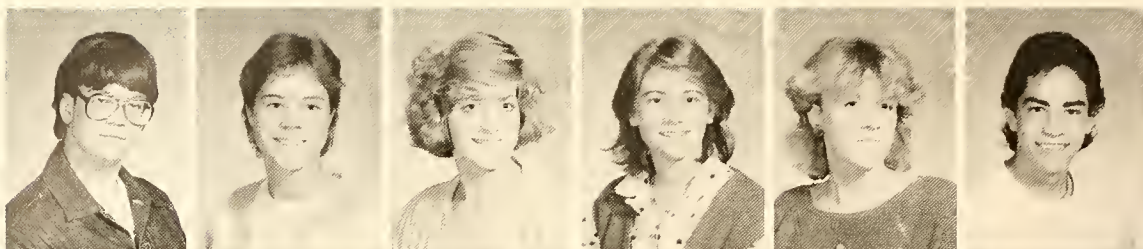

As one of the class officers, I would like to say — thanks, Class of 1988, it was a great year! Keep drying off with your personalized MRHS terry towel, and wear your class ring with well-deserved pride.

We Remember

President-Nora Trebbe, Vice-President-Greg Meeropol

Junior year, I remember . . . the sudden freedom that comes with a pink slip of paper from the Registry of Motor Vehicles. After almost seventeen years of begging rides off Mom or Dad or an older kid-or worse, walking-it's hard to believe that you can bring yourself and your friends to places. But finding a car to drive, can be a problem, as can be getting lost in the middle of Springfield, or the middle of nowhere ("they said the party was in the field behind the red barn two lefts after the church . . .").

Junior year is never forgotten, thanks to the true joy that PSAT's, chemistry, the magazine drive, SAT's, Achievements, U.S. History, and college panic, bring. However, Minnechaug's first junior formal, being upperclassmen, partying, making real money at your first real job, and, of course, driving, made up for all the trying times of the year. After making it through junior year, we know we can do anything!

Senior Paul Fabian reflects on the game.

By now the grass has grown over the worn regions of our practice field. The sled has been put away and along with it the tackleback and the blaster. But the memories of being a Minnechaug football player will never desert us. The hours upon hours of practice and time spent with each other made us more than just a team — we became brothers. It started with double sessions, — did we ever hate double sessions! The popsicle breaks were our only salvation. The lockerooms and showers were never safe — isn't that right, Ogre, Henney, Sis, Soves, Guido, and Fabs? — and the weight room every Monday and Thursday was a place where we could do some serious pumping. Tuesdays were supposed to be award days, our driving force, but it was inevitable that somebody neglected to get the stats in on time. We seniors were the leaders of the team, and starter or non-starter we always played an important role. We'll never forget our teammates.

For many of us this will be the last time we will ever play football. A void is all that will remain along with the memories we shared. The "burning of the shoe" — remember that? I can still see us in a circle around the large fire and Mike Chambers throwing the old shoe right in the middle. Maybe our record did not show it, but our team had the most guts and pride of any team in Western Mass. Coach Bennett always told us to wear our green shirts with pride — and we always did. To the seniors I have but one thing to say, "We got two laps and we're outa here!"

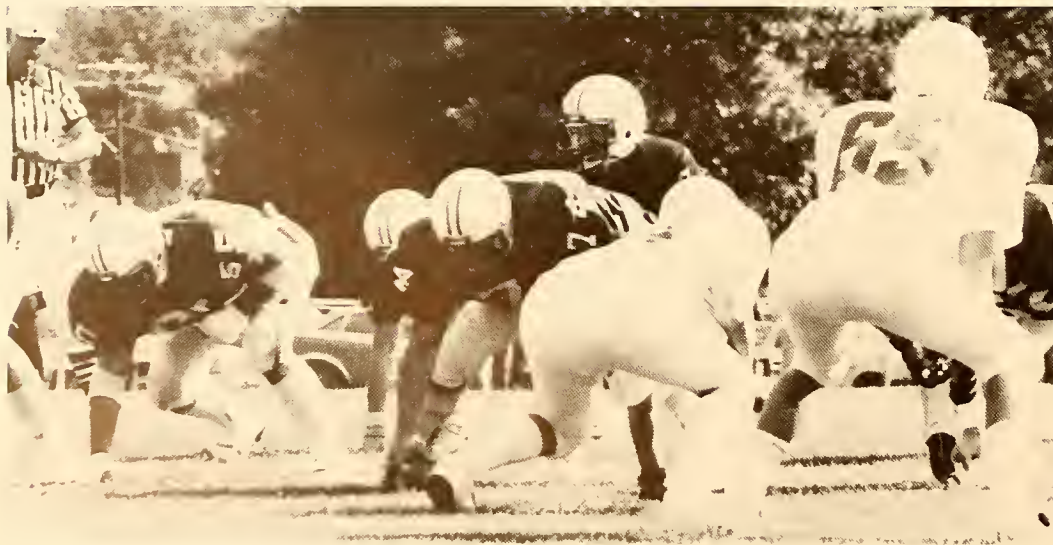

Mark Macero runs up the middle.

From the standpoint of records, it was not the most outstanding season . . . but in the Minnechaug tradition—we really knew how to have fun!!! For the first year ever, we cheered for every home soccer game, and we found the soccer team a sport to be proud of.

The Saturday morning football games were not always victories, but we always found something to cheer about! Even when the game wasn't going our way, our spirits couldn't be broken!!!

For the first time in years our girls went to camp during the summer. A fun filled long weekend at the University of New Hampshire taught us a lot — and we made new friends from far-away places. None of us can ever forget the "toilet paper ballet" and "you're out'a here!" The award we won, for the "best all-around squad at camp," is one we will treasure as memories for years to come.

We'd come along way, but we couldn't have done it without our excellent coach, Lois Mitchell. This was her third season with us and she's been the key to teaching us what teamwork and togetherness is all about.

JV CHEERLEADING

Boy's soccer gets some support.

Starting off a season with a brand new coach halfway through and a new team is not the easiest thing to do. But, with a lot of effort, practice and fun we got a lot of things done. This year our J.V. Cheerleading squad consisted of 4 freshmen, 6 sophomores, and 1 junior who worked together like clockwork. Jackie, Kelli, and Meredith were the cornerstones — never a word of complaint, and Katy and Sharon just loved climbing to the top. Can't forget Albuns, Kristen, Heather, Cindy, and Susan, for without them as middles, our pyramids would collapse. Thanks, Coach Bernie you did a great job as a newcomer to our team.

Do you remember how hard we tried and the team ended its season with only 1 win and 2 ties!! Co- captain Allison Grassetti and Christa Meunier were the greatest with 3 goals apiece. Beth Luczek, Lisa Morace, and Sarah Scannapieco also contributed with 1 goal apiece. Goalie Kim Danio and co- captain Maura Donovan were great. Our defense, with the help of Coach Couturier, will improve this winning record next year.

What a surprising season we had this year!! What with only one player having played field hockey before, we lucked out with all the new talent. Coach McFadden molded us into a great team, with Co-captains, Deana Nadeau and Julie Christensen, of course! Coach McFadden really knew what field hockey was all about! Remember how much Renee Dube, lead scorer, helped us out? Hopefully, next season, with this good grounding we'll move up to varsity and show off our stuff!

BOY'S VARSITY SOCCER

The boy's Varsity Soccer team respectfully finished its season with a 6-8-3 record. Craig Carrigan and I led the team through our co-captainship and scoring. Our teammates Mike Morreti, Loel Tronsky, and Bill Hick added to our strong offensive punch. Securing the mid-field were starters Brian Halloran, Jeff Dennis, and Mike Vigneault. They played their best games against our division leaders and bitter rivals: Cathedral, Chicopee, Classical, and Ludlow. Jim Metzger, Jim Bibens, and Colin Bachelder kept up a strong defense. We'll never forget goalies Pete Folvi and Bryan Siddell; they played the net like their own. The future of our Falcon team is bright. Youngsters Eric Holland, Mark Borsari, Keith Birch, Chris Smith, and Gary Spillane will all return next year to keep 'Chaug soccer alive. See ya then!

Pure effort.

The Girls' Varsity Soccer team showed our incredible strength this year as we scored victory after victory with Coach Deely's excellent instruction. Our players were able to open up the year defeating Longmeadow High. We closed the season by competing in the B-Division Championship. Next season we will lose nine terrific seniors -Michelle Taylor, Jen Buchholz, Jeannine Baer, Lori Morgan, Jean Gorecki, Shelly Rafaele, Suzanne Spellios, Bonnie Wolcott, and Sue Wise. Gorecki, Spellios, and Taylor served as tri-captains and Rigney, Taylor and Cantalini were among the leading scorers. Thanks, soccer players, for giving Minnechaug a team to be proud of!

Ready for a save.

The 1985 Girls' Junior Varsity Soccer team had an excellent season this year under the coaching of Mr. Dan Balser. Our team this year had 22 players: Rachael Belcastro, Karen Chechette, Kateri Collins, Theresa Crocker, Christie Demosthenous, Tehan Desrosier, Linda Granaudo, Linda Herbert, Ellen Jensen, Michele Kennedy, Michele Kowalski, Andrea Lopez, Kerry McAleer, Becky McIsaac, Marq Mosier, Kelli Paluck, Gianna Pedace, Jennifer Pesce, Karen Rose, Susan Stevenson, Kelli Thomas, and Deborah Tupek. Players who also served as the team's managers were Susan Raffaele, Martha Rosati, and Caitlin Cronin. Being on the J.V. team, hopefully, gave many of us the experience to move on to varsity next year. Congratulations to an outstanding team!

BOYS' GYMNASTICS

We were fortunate enough to have an outstanding boys' gymnastics team this year, coached by Keith Lomas. Our team consisted of Troy Rubner, Steve Sherman, Jesse Beacom, Mike Cavros, Mark Branconnier, Paul Waterhouse, John Galcirneal, Jim Nebel, Phil Smith, Todd Southwick, and all-around Chip Bullock.

We participated in seven meets ending with Western Mass. Our boys' gymnastics team will be losing five seniors-Bullock, Rubner, Sherman, Beacom, and Cavros. They will all be greatly missed next year by their former coach and teammates. Congratulations to some very talented gymnasts.

Once again, in the true tradition of Falcon gymnastics, the girls' varsity team completed a fantastic season under first year coaches Mr. Lyons and Mrs. Palm. Our success was due to our depth as a team, which included co-captains Andrea Hinks and Pam Gagne, with team, Tracy Bednarz, Tina Lewenczuk, Patty Donaldson, Lauren Kreszik, Kerry Griffin, Mary Donahue, Marlo Kober, Cathy Roncone, Rory Donahue, Cheri Methe, Amy Greene, Kim Eaton, Anju Reejhsinghani, and Kristen Rys. The team won all twelve meets and went on to capture the Western Mass. crown for the sixth year in a row. Records were broken early in the season by Pam Gagne on vault, Cheri Methe on balance beam and vault, and Cathy Roncone on the uneven parallel bars.

Junior Liz Dempsey finishes strong

After placing second in the Valley League, the girls' Cross Country team finished their season leaving a long line of victories behind them. Our success resulted from the helpful instruction of Coach Hal Miller and the ability of each team member, namely Julie Albano, Lee Bouchard, Jacqueline Bushway, Sarah Connell, Cassandra Coughlin, Liz Dempsey, Heather Greene, Michelle LaPierre, Janet Moody, Patricia O'Neil, and Kristen Pilarcik. Lee Bouchard, Michelle LaPierre, and Kristen Pilarcik served as captains with Sarah Hinchey as team manager. Our team suffered only two losses, one to Cathedral and the other to Southwick. We ended the season with the Western Mass Competition on November 9, 1985.

Boy, was this a disappointing season, but lots of fun. I can't believe we didn't do better. When "Low" swished that shot from midcourt against E.L., I thought we were in for a good season. And then after an exciting comeback win in the next game against Chicopee I thought that no one could beat us. I'll never forget Bob's fouling out of the first eight games and Sherm's never ending charges. Then there was Pierre and Ugs fighting the urge to do wind mill dunks in warmups. And Kill, added the color we needed with spinning baseline moves and airballs from the foul line. Squid also made his presence felt with his harsh fouls and sliding moves to the basket. We also had our own version of Larry Bird in the "House". Last but not least, our fearless manager, Paul "the animal" Fabian, kept the sidelines in order. We may not have accomplish much this year, but we learned the value of hard work.

BOYS' JV BASKETBALL

The J.V. team had an outstanding season, leaving hope for future successful varsity teams. With Stork's devastating blocks and Babe's non stop jumpers, the team was certainly a force to be reckoned with. Ray Musselman's leadership and calmness under pressure contributed greatly to the team's success. Brett, Ground Jordan and Beetle dominated inside while Rosy, Chen, and Todd poured them in from the outside. This was certainly a season to remember!

WINTER CHEERLEADING

Although it wasn't the best season for basketball, spirit was kept high by this year's Winter Cheerleading squad. The squad, led by captain Noel Rihm, performed well this year, keeping the crowd entertained through the whole game. We all know that the squad wasn't complete without Johnny (Who said that?). A big thanks to him and also to Missy for being Noel's crutch during those tough times - especially when Caroline would chew her toes during practice. Katie Brown and Amanda always helped out with their suggestions. Amy's precision and ability made the squad look that much better. Both Kellys were never seen without a smiling face, and Erin and Katie Albee were perfect girls for the pyramid top. Last but not least were Julie and Kathy who were nothing but angels the whole season and kept the squad laughing through thick and thin. SYP!

GIRLS' VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year our girls' varsity basketball team surprised everyone with a winning season. We have shown our outstanding desire for success. Our team's outlook is bright since we will lose only one senior. It will be a great loss, though, because senior, Jean Gorecki, is one of the best guards we have. Returnees will be: Juniors: Stephanie Bennett, Susan Carter, Debbie Hermance, Michele Mailhot, Kathi McFeeters, Lisa Morace, Roxanne Phipps, Lynn Rist, and Sophomores: Connie DeVries, Val Morgan, Ginger Taylor. We are hoping for an outstanding season next year, and with the help of Coach Larry Madden our team will achieve it.

Michele on the line for two.

Due to our fairly victorious season, most of the players that participated on the girls' junior varsity basketball team will probably be varsity members next season. If not, both Falcon teams will be enthusiastically scoring points for Minnechaug just as they did this year. Of course, their coach, Lynn Couturier, deserves some of the credit. With the many hours of practices, the team improved greatly. The players this year were: Elizabeth Belden, Jacqueline Bushway, Cassandra Coughlin, Liz Dempsey, Amy Fitzgerald, Linda Herbert, Ellen Jensen, Michele Kowalski, Andrea Lopez, Kristin Phillips, and Susan Stevenson. Our team's managers were Jessica Gianantoni and Stacey Richmond. Congratulations, players, on a great season and good luck next year!

Dave and John team up for a tally.

Hockey this year was better than other years maybe because of Kibbs' story about "yellowjackets", maybe because we did so well, or maybe because of the weekend in Vermont. For whatever reason though, this years hockey team, on and off the ice, has been better then any other year.

Maybe it was the fact that this season was the last for a lot of us; no more shattering hits from Rostowski, Harty will no longer streak through an entire team and tuck the puck firmly into the net. Sis won't ever again have to listen to Kibbs tell him, "Get the pasta out of your pants!", and never again will Tom O'Connor, or Johnny O' skate for Minnechaug. Even the 'red line' of Sanderson, Reed, and Phil, will do no more 'Herbies' for messing around on the bus.

Some people will be back though; Bunzer will skate again for his last year along with Andy 'Tool' Brown, 'Haze' Henriques, George 'Obar' Abar, and Kertenis will have only one last season to wear the green and white. The sophomores are the luckiest though. Those guys have another two years; it had seemed like an eternity when we were sophomores too. Shaun O'Connor will always be there to help the team psyche-up with 'Bad Company', and 'Kiss'. Skip Welch will pick up the scoring where Harty left off, and Scott Stawas will surely take up the slack in goal when Browner leaves.

Unfortunately the best is always saved for last. As Seniors we will never forget "yellowjackets", Ed Hall, Vermont, 'Herbies', Kibb's, or anything else about this year. Even though it was our last, it was definately our best.

SKIING

Of course, every sport team has to make a lot of effort. But perhaps some of the winter season teams have to work a little harder than all the rest. The twenty-four members of our ski team spent much of their time trekking back and forth to practices. Coach Jay Deely led the team to compete in the Western Massachusetts championships at Berhshire East. Our team began their season shortly after Christmas vacation and competitions were held on Thursdays. Michelle Ross served as the team's manager. Hopefully, most of the skiers will return next year in '87!

SWIMMING

Waiting patiently for a race.

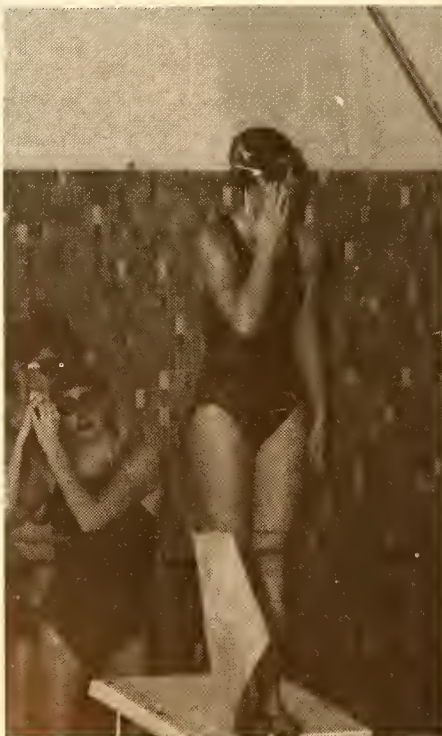

Our boys' Falcon swim team, inspired by senior co-captain Brad Semle and Tony Barrett, dominated the season with an impressive (3-0) record.

They were backed by one of the most powerful teams in the last five years. The team was comprised of seniors: Jim Roncone, Keith Mahoney, Steve Schnur, Jesse Beacom, juniors: Kevin Szymanski, Brian White, Richard Vitkus, sophomores: Craig Putriment, Neil Butterworth, Dennis Duran, and freshmen: Jim Wilk, Josh Campbell, Mark Szymanski, Hatt Smith, and Jeremy Knapczyk.

Coach, Tim Allen, led the team to a first place finish in the 'A' division and strong finishes in the Western Mass and State championship swim meets.

Butterworth, K. Mahoney, C. Putriment, T. Popsun, B. White, R. Vitkus. Missing: J. Roncone, and J. Beacom

We're all set to go!

The girls' swimming team showed their best effort from their first meet against Westfield on December 17 to their participation in the Western Massachusetts championships, which took place on February 13, 14, and 15 at Springfield College. The team, coached by Tim Allen, had a total of fourteen meets. Many freshmen put their swimming talent to use on the team this year; they are: Erica Kanzinger, Chrissy Agnew, Ann Counous, Kelli Thomas, Kim Boucher, Kim Manegre, Becky Morton and Tara McGann. Returning upperclassmen included Melissa Kanzinger, Kim Fridlington, Meghan Farrell, Becky Agnew, and Tracy Garcea. Melissa Kanzinger, Meghan Farrell, and Kim Fridlington all served as co-captains and Penny Griswold was manager. It is through the work put in by the swimmers, Coach Allen and manager's guidance and help, and the support given to by the parents and friends of the swimmers who attended the meets, that the Falcon swim team can be regarded as one of the best!

Almost there!

CHAUG SPIRIT . . .

A long day - but still smiling

"Puttin' on the Glitz

"Am afraid I'll sit this one out"

No Dear, we're going over this way to dance.

To Vincent's for dinner then off to the dance
We hurried & were soon caught in the trance
Of dim lights, of streamers, of girls and their guys
Of the band Arabus's great musical cries
Bruce, Phil, and Bryan soon filled the air
We slow-danced, we fast-danced to the drum's blare
The seniors, I must say, there was no one like

Paul, Tony and Kevin even sang in the mike
Others, on shoulders, were lifted up high
To the red-and-white balloon-studded sky
Jackets and shoes off, we cut loose all night
Well past eleven, when on came the lights
All in all we had a truly mint time
And were pretty sad when the evening ended.

BATTLE OF THE CLASSES

"Hurricane Gloria's coming tomorrow," my mother told me.

"Oh, no!" I cried

"I know, I know," she sighed. "The trees are going to flip, the shrubbery's going to fly and all the lawn chairs are going to rip and multiply."

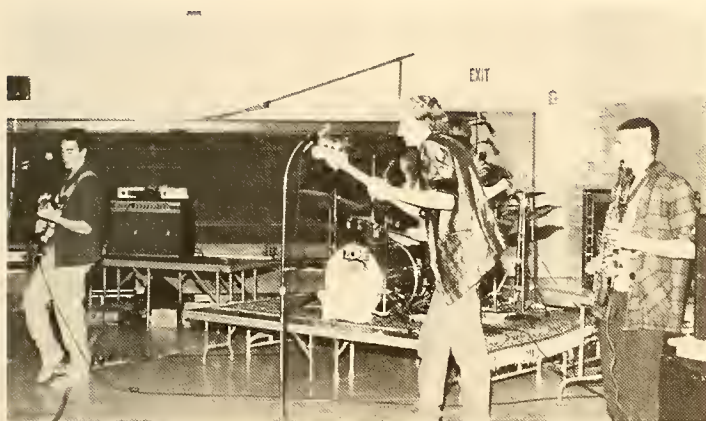

"Who cares about lawn chairs?" The Battle of the Classes dance will be cancelled!"

But never fear. After a couple of weeks of frantic rescheduling, the Battle of the Classes dance rocked on in early October. The three-bands did a marvelous job with the frenzied Fiasco, the "mellifluous" Metal Cry, and punked-out Pat-on-the-Back, featuring Minnechaug's own Alec Corwin on drums. The Class of '89 ruled and so, won the battle. As a likely candidate for Minnechaug's five-year plan, I will probably attend many more of these J.C.L. extravaganzas and am really looking forward to them.

-T.A Jackson

"I can really get into this."

New wave moves through the gym.

"Jen, are we having fun yet?"

Through a shining hoop of silver foil the varsity athletes burst into the gym! Prince's "Let's Go Crazy" competed with the spirited Minnechaug crowd. The first 1985 pep rally had begun.

The emcee, Jim Metzger, managed to keep things flowing smoothly during the program. The captains led their teams in the familiar football chant "Breakdown"; following was an up and coming tradition at Minnechaug's rally. "The Captains' Crush." As always, the cheerleaders displayed their award-winning routine.

The class of '86 quite easily (and quite loudly) showed what they were made of.

THE MINDS AT WORK ... NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Many people have stereotyped the NHS member as the "brain" of the school — the kid with the 5-mile thick bifocals who's got Encyclopedia Britannica memorized from A to infinity, and carries a wallet-sized photo of his computer with him wherever he goes. Well, to shatter that myth — believe it or not, NHS'ers are pretty normal people who have set a goal and achieved it, and they did some pretty normal things this year (such as spazzing out at their annual supersmash Hawaiian Dance). Between the fall and spring inductions, NHS ran its usual tutoring programs where a member who, say, happens to see the point in finding the derivative helps out another student who is having trouble finding it, or who doesn't really want to look for it.

With supervisor, Miss Richter, of-ficers Sara Hinchey, Jeni Rothschild, Doug Howell, Jane Dickinson, and Karolyn Belcher; and a big band of new and old members, NHS carried out another successful year in its quest for Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. — Tina Desai

MODEL CONGRESS

My first M.C. meeting was—to put it gently—a total fiasco. I walked into K-18 late (good start), grabbed a seat, and quietly listened to the heated debate pounding through the crowded room. I heard the word 'Grenada' pop up several times on both sides and, being the current-events whiz that I was, came to the conclusion that today we were discussing war weapons in Italian accents. Well, I was wrong. I was wrong about a lot of things that day, like when I used a Point of Order (official M.C. lingo) to ask my friend what time she was coming over to go shopping. The club was not amused. After that traumatic experience, I realized that this was not just going to be a join-a-club-do-nothing-make-your-college-application-look-good job, and I began to take it seriously. For the first few (52) meetings, I said not a word, too intimidated by all the debonair debaters, too nervous I would say something utterly stupid (and with reason, after the Grenada Pizzeria Mozzarella incident). But you can't help getting psyched during the talks — they often touch on something you have very strong feelings about (prejudice, war, nuclear arms, sex) and it becomes a struggle to keep your mouth shut. I started by asking questions and eventually they were even relevant to the topic of discussion. And so I progressed.

In January, the Club, decked in its dashing Drew Derna-vich-designed shirts, took its bill on Workfare down to A.I.C. and had a very positive experience. Model Congress in general, has been a positive experience for me. It has taught me that there are always 2 sides to the story; many times, I've walked into meetings a diehard on certain issues and have left completely converted. M.C. has also done wonders for confidence, for friendships, and for learning the 'elite' way to spill your guts on world affairs.

To the whole club and to its beyond-super advisor, Ms. Brewer — I thank you and keep up the good work.

AS SCHOOLS MATCH WITS

"5 seconds, Phil!" exclaims the woman behind the camera. This is it! The big moment every As Schools Match Wits'er dreams of! "What's that you ask, Phil? Who wrote The Red and the Black? Why, Stendall, of course." Suddenly, the buzzer rings and the match is over. Minnechaug wins! Jim Goudreau, Jen Holland, Doug Howell, and Cindy Piwonski are in a state of shock as John Isham, their alternate, and Mr. Musselman, their dauntless leader, walk on camera to congratulate them. Finally, all of the relentless practicing and endless memorization pays off. Was it all worth it? You better believe it!

"I can't compete!" Mr. Granaudo, advisor of Mathletes, began to hear this statement in his dreams. This was my habitual cry when asked to participate in the next Mathletes competition. How could I compare with students, (make that Eisteins,) from seventeen surrounding schools in areas such as arithmetic, geometry, algebra, and trigonometry? But the day had suddenly appeared, and I was on my way to Southwick on the Mathletes bus after much convincing.

The tension was mounting. Let's see ... $\sin 2 = 2$ sincos, Vertical angles are congruent ... After much unnecessary fretting, I had made it through the meet with much success. And after leaving the meet, I realized the true essence of Mathletes. (I know, you're asking yourself how anyone could get anything more out of Mathletes than a competition.)

Besides the teamwork involved, perhaps the most important outcome of a Mathletes competition is the realization that you were able to solve problems on your own, without the help of your older brother, teacher, or friend.

So Mathletes isn't just for brains and Einsteins ... Look at me! Mathletes is a club for anyone who'd like to gain more self-confidence in himself and his abilities, as well as brush up on math skills for high school and the future.

We Remember FALCON YEARBOOK

Tammy Buckley, Mike Clark (Photo editors)

There is a club to which I belong where everything seems to always go wrong.
 My title is co-editor-in-chief the pressures from which I get no relief.
 Over the summer, we planned the dreaded yearbook-
 the difficult job that I'd undertook.
 Unfortunately, it began in the monetary hole
 so to decrease that debt was a major goal.
 The book was ordered smaller in size,
 but we knew the quality was sure to rise.
 We were going to make the early deadline,
 Everything seemed to be going fine!
 Then our photographer left in the dead of night.
 He took all our pictures; It just wasn't right!
 The novice staff took charge of his job
 Many couldn't handle the pressure, and would often sob.
 It now seemed impossible to make our due date, but we rallied together- we weren't going to be late!
 I no longer could be just the big boss,
 I took pictures and wrote copy because of our loss!
 In fact, we're trying to finish still,
 but because of our devotion we surely will.
 I am proud of our effort, I even had fun especially when the staff pulled together as one.

SMOKE SIGNAL

The reliable Trons is hard at work.

What are you doing Mark?

That's very interesting, could you do it again?

Gotta get this glue on this darn paper.

Working for a school newspaper can be a monumental pain! Very often the staff works past the late bus, designing and laying out the Smoke Signal pages, and spends any hours of any day covering and photographing every event. Ten months of this schedule is clearly too much for an editorial staff to handle alone, so this year we formed a reporters' staff and built the paper's complement up to well over thirty; it is the largest combined staff in the paper's history.

I would like to thank our advisor, Mr. James Matroni, for all the major miracles he worked in making ours one of the most self-dependent papers in the region. Thanks also to Ms. Betty Bansleben, our business advisor, for financing our operation and keeping the paper free of charge.

Good luck to the staff next year!

GIVING MY TIME KEY CLUB

How long is this meeting?

C'mon guys, I'm trying to be serious

Front row: P. Manseau, M. Sauve, K. Brainard, S. Raffaele, K. Brown. Middle row: S. Singiser, M. Farrell, K. Allbee, B. Roseboro, L. Warner (Pres.), N. Rihm (Sec.), K. Maloney (V. Pres.), J. Dickinson, A. Tarbell. Back row: H. Trivedi, D. Manseau, B. Agnew, C. Whitfield, C. Demosthenous, M. Rothschild, A. Maselli, K. Cerasa, K. Sullivan, D. Warner, P. Zazueta, E. Tierney, A. Hersman, G. Spoonick, (adv.)

This year, I had the pleasure being a part of fairly new club in our school, the Key Club. The Key Club, a junior extension of the Kiwanis Club, is a service oriented group that focuses on school, community, and church interactions. The club's third year of operation, 1985, is off to a good start, having completed projects such as the Crop Walk for the hungry, a car wash, and a banquet for the Kiwanians of Springfield. The banquet, my personal favorite, held on October 2nd was a model meeting for the Kiwanians. About 45 Kiwanians and their wives came to Minnechaug for a Spaghetti dinner and program hosted by about 30 of our own Key Clubbers. As a service organization, the growing membership of this is giving many students a chance to give of themselves to others.

— Lori Warner

In reflection, I think back with gratitude toward Mrs. Ats, the J.C.L. advisor, who over the years has had the care and dedication that has made her a great friend, teacher, and advisor. She was understanding and had the rare ability to have fun which is why members of the J.C.L. trust and admire her. One could never forget sliding down the University of Rochester campus in the middle of a rainstorm. What did Mrs. Ats say when we scrambled into our dorm soaked with black mud? "How far does a mother have to go to get her kids clean?" "All the way to Tide Country!!"

Without Mrs. Ats, the J.C.L. would be just another club, but we can not discount the educational and enjoyable aspects of our activities. The 1985 Catapult contest held at Minnechaug in November and the state convention held in Brookline were high points in our year. Minnechaug held its own and came out on top. The J.C.L. is proud of our wonderful advisor and one of the most active clubs in the school. If you are not in J.C.L. — you now know what you're missing.

STUDENT HOST AND HOSTESSES

The student hosts and hostesses is a unique club whose members give their time to aid in the smooth running of functions. Our volunteering tasks range from handing out programs, and ushering-in audiences at performances, to serving refreshments at sports awards banquets. We also help out at the Pops concert and dinner in March. We, the student hosts and hostesses, are there to help. Led by our advisor, Ms. Ahlquist and our president, Karen Piwonski, we enjoyed an active, and enjoyable year.

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

I like to recall all the great times I've had in my two years in International Club. I especially remember the short-term exchange we had. Kids from Kroton-On-the-Hudson, New York, came to stay for the weekend. First they attended classes here at school and then we had a party for them. We ate taco's for breakfast, lunch, and dinner for a week-we had so many. On Saturday we strolled in Sturbridge Village and that night we had an Old-fashioned square dance. None of us knew what we were doing but we all had a good time pretending that we knew. Then finally and sadly, Sunday, our Hudson buddies had to return to New York, and we bade our farewells in tears in our eyes. In such a short time, we had made friends to last a lifetime. Fun, friendship, and foreign faces, in the Hudson and Spain and other places-That's what International Club is all about.

Kim Boz

P.A.V.A.S.

This was certainly a year to remember for PAVAS, the Performing and Visual Arts Society. Its officers, John Popsun, President, Lee Bouchard, Vice President, Pat Manseau, Secretary, and Bill Sheehan, Treasurer, led the club through a tough first semester. First there was the car wash that was indeed "washed out" due to rain, and the bake sale scheduled for Election day which had to be cancelled when it was learned that Wilbraham wasn't holding elections. Things did improve, however, second semester when we did manage to reschedule the car wash, attend Stage West and have a St. Patrick's Day pot luck supper.

The Music Makers

"We need more people up front . . . , Let's go, keep it moving we're almost done!" We, the M.R.H.S. band, unloaded our Mack truck, from Florida, filled with naval oranges and pink seedless grapefruit. "Switch", topping my list of amusing sayings from band, refers to the teamwork on the inside of the refrigerated fruit-filled truck. Like a conveyor belt, the assembly line with every bushel that was passed out of the truck. My heart pounded from the strain as I passed along boxes of oranges; still my arms were eager for another. Not all the band work was done within the truck however. We often were dragged out of our warm houses to practice for winter concerts from 7:00 to 9:00 pm. Most of us had other things to do like algebra or English homework, but thanks to the dedication of both the B and E-blockers, and our parents, our year's accomplishments were made possible.

Gina Alberici

THE SINGERS

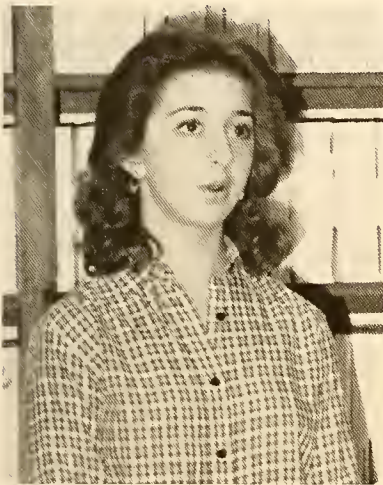

This year the Madrigal Singers took on a new light with our director, Ray Drury. Through a lot of hard work, we perfected a vast repertoire. How could we miss? Mr. Drury directed with style and skill. I remember him stressing scales, sight-reading, and quartet-singing. What fun that was! I enjoyed being a member of the Madrigal Singers because it is a serious and challenging music course, yet I had fun learning new ways to perfect my singing voice. As usual our Winter and Spring concerts really showed off our newly honed skills in singing!

High C is this high.

Three little angels (at least in sound!)

I wonder how long I can hold this note!

Quick! What's the next word?

Forget your music again?

I think I am going flat.

Heather awaits the cut off.

The traditional purpose of the Treble Choir at Minnechaug has always been to make an easy transition from Junior High choral groups to the more mature choral groups in High School. Our director, Mr. Raymond Drury, is the best. He decided that Treble Choir, our new title, was a better representation of the Soprano-Alto sound of our voices. If you attended our Winter and Spring concerts, you would have witnessed our flexibility in song. We even sang in German! I look forward to continuing in this excellent choral program in the years to come.

Best Play: A Forgotten Time

Around Christmas time junior year, my English class received its one-act play assignments. I wrote of what I felt I knew best seeing around me at the time-broken hearts, broken dreams, and separation. The play was called A Forgotten Time, and in it, three old best friends meet up again at a high school reunion, where fate's reversals are revealed. The play was so fun to write and the lines came so easily to me I was surprised; it was as if they had been in my head all along. And, indeed, they could have been. I'd often wondered before what my high school reunion would be like. How would I feel seeing so many people that meant so much to me, again - all those people that I thought I'd never see had once been so much a part of my life? What about the very people that were with me through all the growing-up times — the football-player who sat in front of me in study, his build reflecting no trace of its former glory . . . best-looking girl, now with laugh lines too deep to be called laugh lines . . . the famous First Love and, perhaps his wife? These thoughts had saddened me before. And now, as a senior, and as separation approaches all the more quickly with every tick of the clock, they sadden me again. Thank you Goody, Kim, Steve, and the rest of the Falcon Players for putting on A Forgotten Time this past fall. It meant more to me than I could ever tell you people who inspired it — making high school as special as it was for me.

THE GO GETTERS

GUIDANCE AND OFFICE AIDES

Katie Belcher helps ease the paper deluge.

I served as a guidance aide this year and felt good that I could help out as much as I did. I remember the mountains of filing — student schedules mostly — and how busy we were especially during the first few weeks in the year. It appeared as if everyone in the school demanded a schedule change. Perhaps the most interesting thing, however, about being a guidance aide was meeting the new students. I frequently acted as a guide on their first day of school. Getting to M or K hall can be so confusing to a newcomer, and it was rewarding to be able to help.

Kim Eaton and Dina Warner make filing look like fun.

BUSINESS AIDES

Cindy Roj and Cricket Barnes ACCOUNT for the excess paperwork in the business office.

LIBRARY AIDES

What do I love about being a Library Aide? I love, 1) being the only one around when 5 people with 5000 books need help signing out all at once; 2) the feeling of having my favorite pen stolen from the desk; 3) hearing the executive click of my heels on the linoleum of the magazine room; 4) the lush green carpet which reminds me of grass and all the paper in the books which reminds me of trees, to give me that 'woody' feeling.

I have power. I can fine people. I can refuse somebody the right to sign out a book. And I have rewards. I cherish the salty fragrance of a new book. Yes, it is a rewarding job, indeed. But the most book-shattering thing I remember is this:

It was a dull day, nothing to do. I was sitting at the desk, disconnecting paper-clips when a girl walked in. She laid the book upon the desk directly in front of me. I then realized the book was ticking! She told me it would detonate in 10 seconds.

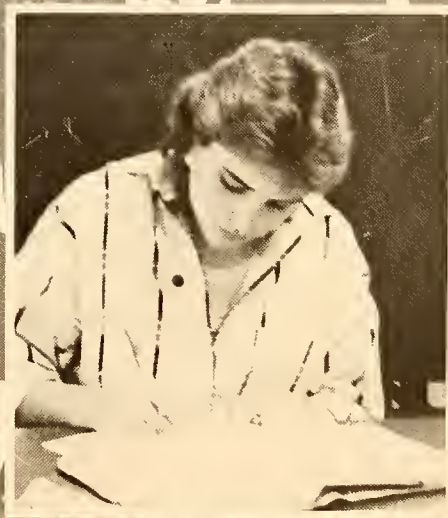

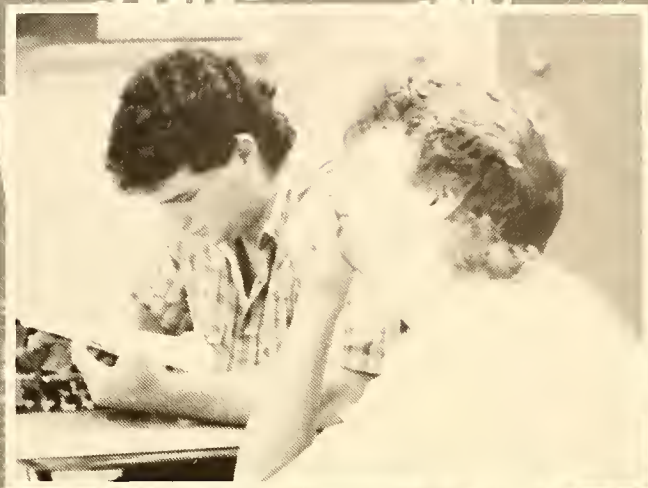

I had to think fast. Quickly, I ran into the A.V. room and hurled the book into the sink, destroying the mechanism. I single-handedly saved the library from ruin.

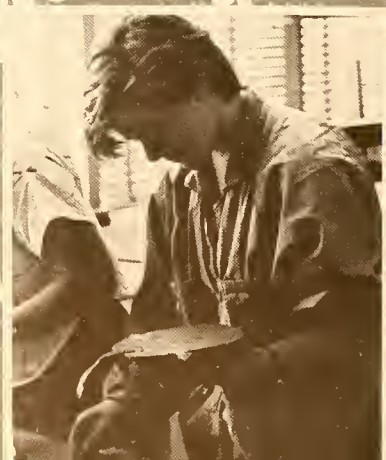

What power!

— Laura Engel

Did you say 20 overdue books? I thought Freshmen didn't even know where the library was!

The bonds that we all shared
I did not know my own heart
Til my prayer turned to despair
You seven were not strangers
But my brothers, sisters, pride
And hope. In the beginning of joy were tears I cried
When you reached out to grasp the stars
I felt them in my hold
When you had strength to dare to fly
The strength flowed through my soul
You dared to more than dream-you did
What we just wished inside
And when you Brave Ones lost your lives

don't want to Remember...

- The day Valley's closed
- The day the photographer didn't show for our first underclassmen photo session
- Every (A,B,C,D ...) study I spent doing yearbook
- The day the pipe fell through the ceiling in the M-hall darkroom
- When Mrs. Fiutowski (accidentally) exposed our precious (and needed) roll of film
- The day(s) we ran out of film
- The Friday(s) we stayed after until 6:00 p.m.
- The first day the Seniors tried to take their Senior class shot on the bleachers
- The second day the Seniors tried to take their Senior class shot on the bleachers
- The wild scramble for last minute yearbook sales
- The Senior portraits that were taken, but never received
- That red light!
- The first, second, third ... time we tried to take the Senior Seminar ad
- The six editors that quit because of the pressure
- The headaches, emotional breakdowns, and personal trauma we endured for yearbook.

but how can I ever forget...

- The day Michael and Tamara got the photography department into working order
 - The day Mr. Beake took the great Senior portraits. Finally!
 - The deadline day we had pizza
 - The day the underclassmen editors handed in their last page — without an error
 - The Cherry Coke in the underclassmen drawer
 - The great time we had at the yearbook sponsored dance
 - Sefali's "I didn't do it", "It's not my fault"
 - The day the yearbook was at last finished, and didn't turn out so bad
 - Mrs. Fuitowski-our best friend, bully, comforter, ally, enemy, conscience, but above all else the greatest advisor ever!
- WE DID IT!

I remember

Another year over. But this time it's not just another year', one that I'll scratch off with barely a eulogy as I did last year and the one before — all the years blending into a haze of similar colors, calendars, and Christmases. No, this year, that's all changed. This time, come September, I won't be wandering sleepily through H-hall, a little embarrassed to be an upperclassman, still baffled by the Minnechaug floorplan. As December snow falls softly from the sky, I won't be hanging around the lunch table gawking and gasping at the unlikely couples who were actually going to the Semi together. No PAVAS (PAVAS?), no Hawaiian Dance.

It's all so overwhelming. One minute, you're a vulnerable victim of The Arena, the next, they're handing you your diploma. It's hard to believe so much time has slipped by. And then you come upon a tangible relic of the past — an old photograph, perhaps — and you know it. It's happened. It's really true — you've grown up.

As the year dies, so much yet endures, and gives to it a lasting breath. Pictures, letters, friendships, yearbooks and, of course, the intangible souvenirs: the memories ... Memories of love, of learning, of life ... Memories of not only friends in school but also a friend in a school ... Memories that will make me sometimes happy, sometimes sad, and always grateful ... Thank you, Minnechaug, for this year and for four of the best years of my life. I'll miss you.

And you know, I'll always remember, ...

9 years ago, Chris Dunklee, Jeff Jones, Todd Taylor, Scott Makuch, and Loel Tronsky were buddies. They are still friendly, but are now headed in their own directions. Their time together has ended, as has all of ours-but it was a time to remember.
